

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter displays the closure of the research, containing the conclusion drawn by examining the whole chapter, and the suggestion given by the researcher for future researchers.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research findings, the researcher draws a conclusion as follows,

Firstly, Benefits of Using VOA Special English to Teach Listening Skill. From the findings of the research, the researcher concludes that VOA is an active media that can support the teaching and learning process, especially teaching and learning listening since it motivates students in learning listening. VOA can also make students more active, enthusiastic, and focused on listening class. By using VOA, the students could gain new knowledge and vocabulary. Furthermore, the students will experience real-life communication when the teachers use VOA in their classrooms. Besides, all of the video and audio in VOA are free. It financially helps the teachers and students.

Second, Development of Students' Listening Skill Taught by Using VOA Special English. From year by year, several researchers have conducted some research related to the use of VOA special English in teaching listening. From the research findings, the researcher concludes that there is the development of students' listening skill after they are being taught using VOA. It can be proved by the students' score in listening tests that increase significantly.

B. Suggestion

In this section, the researcher would like to propose some suggestions for students, English teachers and future researchers.

1. For the Students

Due to the various benefits brought by VOA special English, the researcher suggests the students to utilize VOA special English to help them to learn English both inside and outside the classroom.

2. For the Teacher

For the teachers, the researcher highly recommends using VOA special English in the teaching and learning process since it is an excellent platform which provides many great features that can support educational needs.

3. For the Other Researchers

Since there are several research related to VOA and teaching English, the researcher suggests the future researchers conduct the same topics of research, but in more general aspects, not specific to listening skill.
